BOARDS CANNOT ACT AS LAW IS CHANGED

FIRE AND POLICE COMMISSION ADMIT IT.

Oshkosh Ruling of Interest to All Cities Under the Civil Service Law—Statute Changed By the Revisors—Fight On the Slot Machines Ends.

The slot machine agitation at Oshkosh has developed knowledge as to the rights and powers of police boards that is of importance to every city in the state affected by the civil service law. It is that fire and police boards have no authority in the matter of enforcing the law, but that their jurisdiction relates simply to the matter of filling vacancies and making appointments. It was the discovery of this state of affairs that has compelled the local fire and police board to abandon its fight on the slot machine and resign all pretensions to jurisdiction in favor of the mayor.

The Board's Statement.

The board in a communication formally announcing its position says: "The law which we were acting under we find has been repealed, and a substitute adopted and went into effect September 1, 1898. We cheerfully accept the situation and leave the enforcement of the laws and ordinances in the hands of the mayor, who is responsible under the law to the people. We had under consideration the matter of making rules and regulations for the government of the police and fire department, but as we have no power to enforce any rules we may make, we will proceed no further. We will not meet again for the present unless you wish the board called together for some especial purpose."

Law Is Revised,

The explanation is that the civil service law as originally passed nearly two years ago conferred extensive powers on fire and police boards and charged them practically with the discipline of the city. But when the statutes came to be revised and published these important provisions were omitted and the revised statutes that went into effect Sept. 1 last confine the province of these boards simply to the matter of appointments. The result in this city as far as slot machines are concerned will probably be that the machines will be under certain restrictions allowed to remain, but that a license in some form will be levied.

Paper Horseshoes.

A comparatively resilient shoe for horses has been constructed from compressed paper. The invention has received some attention in Germany, where several successful experiments in connection with it have been carried out. The matter is now coming into prominence in this country. It is claimed that such shoes are cheaper and in every way better for the horse than are iron ones; needing no nailing to the hoof, being fixed there, in fact, with a strong glue; costing less and wearing nearly as long.

Where the Ocean Is Deepest.

A little more than thirty miles from the coast of Japan the Pacific ocean has been found to be more than 4,643 fathoms deep. Some officers who were surveying for a telegraph cable found their wire broke at this depth without reaching the bottom. This is said to be the deepest sounding ever made, and is so deep that the two highest mountains in Japan, placed one over the other in this abyss, would leave the summit of the upper one two-thirds of a mile below the surface of the water.

Give This to Your Teacher.

To the Editor—Here is a little problem I wish you would ask some one to solve for me: A man has two lots of 60 apples. The first lot he sells 5 apples for 2 cents, which amounts to 24 cents. The second lot he divides into two parts of 30 each; the first part he sells 2 for 1 cent—15 cents, and the second part 3 for 1 cent—10 cents, which amounts to 25 cents. Why the difference in the price received for the two lots of apples?—Ex.

A Tree of Copper.

The Duke of Devonshire owns the greatest curiosity in England. It is known as the weeping tree. This imitation tree is made of copper and is so dexterously contrived and cunningly painted that at a careless glance one does not distinguish it from a real tree. It drips water on tourists who wander neath its shade.

King Humbert of Italy.

The king of Italy is the only vegetarian among European monarchs, and the only king now living who was ever wounded in battle. In the battle of Custoza he was attacked by an Austrian officer, who inflicted a severe gash with his sabre and would probably have killed him had not assistance arrived.

Walking vs. Cycling.

When a man walks a mile he takes, on an average, 2,263 steps, lifting the weight of his body with each step. When he rides a bicycle of the average gear he covers a mile with the equivalent of only 627 steps, requires no force, bears no burden, and covers the same distance in less than one-third of the time.

DOCTORS KILL SIX DEER

Janesville Aesculapians Have Good Luck in Clark County

Drs. G. G. Chittenden, R. R. Powell and R. W. Edden returned yesterday from their deer hunting trip in the vicinity of Medford, Clark county, twenty miles from any railroad line. They killed six deer during their two weeks' absence, and brought them all home.

Under the new law each member of the party was obliged to take out a license which entitled them to kill two deer. Any further slaughter of the animals is strictly prohibited. The license issued to Dr. Powell was numbered 5620 and required him to obey the law as the manner of hunting deer. One dollar was exacted as a license fee from each member of the party, and a ten-cent revenue stamp was affixed.

SERIOUS PROBLEM IN CUBA.

Thirty Thousand Troops Disbanded Must Be Provided with Work.

New York, Nov. 14.—Capt. Justo Garcia, the son of Gen. Calixto Garcia of the Cuban army, who was a passenger on the United States transpport Berlin, from Santiago de Cuba, said in an interview:

"We are being confronted by several very serious conditions. The chief one is the disbanding of our 30,000 troops, who must be given work, and the convention now in session at Santa Cruz is trying to solve the question. The assembly proposes to appoint a commission to consult with the government officers at Washington as to the best way of disbanding. The commission will endeavor to enable these men to re-establish their farms. To do this $50,000,000 is needed and overtures will be made to United States to advance this sum to the Cuban government as soon as it is formed and our government will be the security. If the United States government does not care to advance such a sum the commission will try to form a syndicate of American capitalists to advance the money."

Duel in a Gold Mine.

Prescott, Ariz., Nov. 14.—Deep down in the earth, in an arena of gold, four men yesterday engaged in a battle the result of which is told by three wounded men and the death damp on another's icy brow. It was in the Trilby mine that Superintendent Murphy and his assistant, Bruner, met two other men who owned an adjoining property and at once ensued a quarrel over the dividing line. Ten minutes later all revolvers were empty, Bruner was dead, Murphy mortally wounded and the invaders badly injured. The dividing line question is still unsettled.

The Teresa a Mile Off Shore.

Twelve concerns will use 7,000 tons of beets per day, and, in addition, Utah is to have a new factory and a new one near Baker City, Ore., which had a short run this year, will be in full operation in 1899.

Perished in the Flames.

Owosso, Mich., Nov. 14.—The village of Perry, south of this city, was visited by a terrible fire early today. Rowe & Co.'s large livery barn, with its contents, was burned to the ground. Charles Taylor, one of the proprietors, and family lived over the barn. Mrs. Taylor, her daughter, and an old man named Clark were buried beneath the fallen roof and burned to death.

HE STRUCK HIS WIFE AND WENT TO JAIL

DAVID CUNNINGHAM SERVING SENTENCE.

In Default of Payment of a Fifty Dollar Fine, He Goes to the Bastile For Sixty Days—Chief Hogan Witnessed the Brutal Act.

Mrs. Cunningham runs a bakery on West Milwaukee street. Her husband is not employed at the bakery but works about town when he is at home. Saturday night Chief Hogan heard that Cunningham was abusing his wife, and went to the bakery. He arrived just in time to see Cunningham, through the window, draw back like a pugilist, and strike his wife a swinging blow in the face. It didn't take the chief more than a second or two to reach Cunningham, and the latter was at once taken to jail.

Cunningham was brought into the municipal court this morning. He entered a plea of guilty to the charge, and Judge Fifield sentenced him to pay a fine of $50 and costs, or go to jail for sixty days. The prisoner couldn't pay so he went to jail.

"Why didn't you strike a man if you wanted to fight?" said Chief Hogan to the prisoner. "Why didn't you strike me?" But Cunningham only "sized up" the chief's stalwart form and said nothing.

Mrs. Cunningham manages the bakery and supports her three children unaided Cunningham frequently goes away for weeks at a time leaving her to provide for herself.

"It looked pretty tough" said Chief Hogan this morning, "to see a man draw his arm back like a prize fighter and strike a woman that way, but I guess this will be a lesson to Cunningham in the future."

Edgar N. Mayer, who is charged with forgery, was before the court this morning, and the case was held open.

DREYFUS IS NOT DEAD

The Prisoner of Devil's Island Still Lives, But Is Despairing of Release.

Paris, Nov. 14—[Special]—The rumor that Dreyfus is dead is unfounded, but in view of the prisoner's last despairing statement to his wife, many believe such an occurrence is possible in the near future.

A Town Without Rats.

It is a curious fact that Evart, Mich., has no rats, or at least has none up to this time, and in our nearly twenty years' residence here we have never seen or heard of but one rat being seen here, and that was several years ago, when one was killed at the depot. But it seems that we are in the line of progress in this matter as well as in others, for on Tuesday Will Ramsey killed a large one at the Evart Roller Mills. The rodent was seen several weeks ago, and the men have been looking for him. So far as known there was but one, and it may be that we are not to be cursed by the pests, as are other places, for a while. —Evart Review.

The Newest Tobacco Cure.

A placard announcing a "sure tobacco antidote" in a Chicago store devoted chiefly to the sale of confections was thus explained by the proprietor as he offered a box of concentrated lime lozenges: "This remedy has been tried in a number of cases and I have never known it to fail. The acidity of the lozenges makes tobacco disagreeable. But you must have the lozenge in your mouth when you smoke or the combined unpleasantness of the two flavors will not be appreciated. Try it by taking two lime drops just after dinner, when a man most longs for a smoke. You will soon throw away your cigar or cigarette."

A Bright American Girl.

Miss Marie McNaughton, who went to Paris as stenographer and translator with the Peace Commission, is a Western girl. She is the same young woman who passed the examination for translator in the Bureau of American Republics a year ago, and who, with another young woman, Miss Mary Kirke, gets the highest salary paid by the government for women—the sum of $2,500 a year. She is a native of the state of Michigan and is a young woman of beauty and great charm of manner.

Aluminum Leaf.

Aluminum leaf has been used for years for many of the purposes to which gold leaf and silver leaf are put. It is used for printing hat tips, shoe tags, umbrella tips, lead pencils, for lettering on machines, for various decorative purposes, for signs, including lettering on cars, and so on. It does not tarnish, and its cost is from half to three-quarters that of silver leaf, which costs about one-seventh as much as gold leaf. Aluminum bronze is now largely used on steam radiators

Exchanging Microbes.

"About a year ago," remarks a gossip, "the congregation of one of our very well-known churches uptown adopted, after long and serious debate, the individual communion cups. The older members strenuously disapproved of the innovation, and even went so far a sto say that 'the Lord knew all about microbes, but when He was on earth the large cup was used.' However, the younger members, led by an aspiring young physician, triumphed, and the tiny cups made their appearance. Last Sunday happened to be the communion day, and now comes the tragic part of the tale, but it occurs not in public. The cups were collected, the few drops of wine left in them emptied into a pan, and, horror of horrors! the drops collectively poured back into the bottle, microbes and all. The question is, can this be a plan by which the old folks continue to have their own way and exchange their microbes, or is it simply economy?"—Philadelphia Record.

A Snake's Eyes Never Closed.

One of the most curious facts with regard to snakes is that their eyes are never closed. Sleeping or waking, alive or dead, they are always wide open. This is because there are no eyelids. The eye is protected only by a strong scale, which forms a part of the epidermal envelope, and is cast off in a piece with that every time the reptile moults. This eye plate is as clear and transparent as glass, and allows the most perfect vision, while at the same time it is so hard and tough as to perfectly protect the delicate organ within from the thorns and twigs among which, in flight from enemies or in pursuit of prey, the reptile so often hurriedly glides, as any close observer of the habits of the snake can readily discover.

Another Insomnia Cure.

A physician says that acute insomnia may be promptly cured by the practice of deep breathing. Draw into the lungs as much air as possible, and do not exhale it until obliged to, and then as slowly as possible. It is somewhat of a task when the night is oppressively warm, but if persisted in is fairly sure to relieve that hyperaemia of the brain which every-day folk call wakefulness. The tricks of the sleepless to induce sleep are many, but none is found to be more immediately efficacious than this plan of forcing the lungs to take the burden off the brain and nerves.—Boston Transcript.

NO SUPREME COURT JUDGE YET NAMED

SELECTION OF PINNEY'S SUCCESSOR POSTPONED.

There Are Three Candidates From Whom the Governor Will Choose—Milwaukee Man Likely to Have the Preference—Judge Gilson a Strong Candidate.

Madison, Nov. 14—[Special]—Gov. Scofield has postponed the appointment of a successor to Justice Pinney on the the supreme court bench until tomorrow. The choice, it is said, lies between Judge Gilson, of Fond du Lac, and Mr. Dodge of Milwaukee, although a third aspirant, whose name is not given, has appeared in the field with strong backing. In any event the new appointee will be a democrat, as that party is entitled by usage to the seat.

The governor has been in receipt of letters and dispatches from the friends of all the candidates, and many personal appeals have been made to him on behalf of each.

He will, however, choose the man whom he deems best qualified for the place. It is said that J. E. Dodge is most likely to win the prize, as he has the advantage of location in his favor, Milwaukee being at present without a representative on the supreme bench, although the cases from that city comprise nearly one third of the calendar year in and year out.

Queen Regent Would Make Peace.

Madrid, Nov. 12.—The queen regent, whose health is visibly impaired by the strain of the last eight months, thinks the wisest course to be for the cabinet to instruct the Spanish peace commissioners frankly to concede the American demand of the Philippines and to work honestly and expeditiously to frame a treaty. Not so, however, Sagasta, who is still sparring for time, and hopes to succeed in one more gigantic bluff. He now says that the cabinet requires the authorization of the cortes before it can consent to abandon the Philippines, and he is reported to have informed the Spanish commissioners that they have no mandate to discuss such an eventuality.

St. Vincent Is Swept Bare.

Kingston, Jamaica, Nov. 3.—The results of calm investigation have proved conclusively that the first reports of the destruction wrought by the recent cyclone at St. Vincent were short of the actual facts. The island was literally swept bare of vegetation, the experience of 1780 being repeated, but the full extent of the devastation was not at first known, owing to the difficulty of communication through the destruction of the roads and shipping. The island is practically a desert. Several hundred deaths have occurred from exposure and privation.

Spectacles for Horses.

It is asserted in Popular Science News that spectacles for horses are among recently patented inventions. The purpose is said to be not to improve the sight, but by causing the ground in front to appear nearer than it really is, to induce the horse to take high steps. After a training with such spectacles, it is averred, the horse acquires and retains a habit of high-stepping.

Janesville, Wis., Nov. 12—Your inquiry of Nov. 10 as to my choice for United States senator is at hand. In reply would say that I do not think it wise to elect a United States senator in advance of the meeting of the legislature, and hence must decline to comply with your request.

One of the Strikers Claims They Have Been Misrepresented.

Janesville, Wis., Nov. 14—Editor Gazette—In justice to the girls of the Janesville Clothing Co., a correction of the statements of last Tuesday in regard to the trouble should be made. The girls did not ask for an increase in wages, but objected to a 40 per cent cut. I will also state that none of the girls have returned to work. Under the old scale I earned from ninety cents to $1.25 per day, and under the new scale I earned about forty cents per day. All we ask is justice and living wages.

The Reason Will Be Given at the Opera House Next Week

One of the strong attractions for this season has been secured for the Grand Opera House, Tuesday, Nov 22. It is George H. Broadhurst's farce "Why Smith Left Home." The company is an unusually strong one comprising such capable actors as: Maclyn Arbuckle, M. B. Snyder, Fred Peters, Harry Webster, Maurice Darcy, Marion Giroux Annie Yeamens, Harry Rose, Jessie Conant, Dorothy Usner, Rose Snyder, Blanche Chapman and Gertrude Roosevelt.

"Why Smith Left Home," is labeled farce, played as such and quoted as such, so it is at least an honest offering. This is more than can be said of most theatrical enterprises. The plot is built around an everyday incident which is gradually driving the world to drink, the heinous desire to inflict our presence on honeymoon people and thereby cause them to say mean things behind our backs. Mr. Broadhurst has turned and twisted this universal failing into a very kaleidoscope of complications, through all of which he guides Smith with a master hand.

There are twelve people in the play. Undoubtedly the best character creation is Lavinia Daily, Secretary of the Cook Ladies' union, Queen of the Housemaids' society and any number of things in kindred organizations. After her third or fourth entrance it is said her very speech is the signal for a shout. Of course, a goodly part of the enthusiasm is called forth by the capabilities of the actress, who is our old and tried friend Annie Yeamans. Though some of her lines are such as might tempt a less artistic player to horseplay, she rounds off the edges and treads the sunlit path between burlesque and comedy with a sure step. Her Lavinia Daly is said to be worth more than a passing view. The sale of seats will open Monday morning.

BARLEY IN GOOD DEMAND

Rock County Grain is of Superior Quality And Eagerly Sought.

J. S. Banfield hauled a load of barley to the city last week which netted him $43.60. The grain was sold to G. R. Fetherstone and brought 38 cents a bushel. The barley crop in this section is an excellent one this year, the berry being plump and of good color just such a grain as is in great demand by brewers for malting purposes. Buyers from the breweries of Milwaukee, Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis have been in this vicinity recently, and pronounce this year's grain in Rock county fully equal to the Canadian article.

Tomorrow Miss Bertha E. Schmidley and John Bier will be married by Rev. W. A. Goebel at St. Mary's church in this city. The bride-to-be is well known here, where she has long resided. The groom is a farmer of the town of Harmony.

On Wednesday of next week at St. Mary's church, Miss Fannie Connell and William Knipp will exchange their vows. Both have hosts of friends in this city, who will extend their congratulations.

A Beautiful Picture

What more beautiful picture is there in this world than that of a father, mother and children on an outing all filled with health, vigor and vitality? It rejoices the heart to behold it. How many poor unfortunate families, alas! are different! Father and mother sick and ailing and low spirited children, puny, fretty and peevish. Such are sad to look upon. But this can be made different. Dr. Greene, 148 State Street, Chicago, Ill., the eminent specialist, has cured thousands of cases snch as these and what is more greatly important you can get this distinguished doctor's advice by mail, free. Take advantage of this if you need medical aid. Dr. Greene can cure you.

Eccentricities of Composers.

Writing of the eccentricities of Herr Strauss, the dance music composer, a Vienna writer says he is as nervous as a composer as he is as a director. Clad in a velvet costume, with patent leather boots reaching to his knees, his eyes aflame, and in a fit of inspiration, he goes striding through the house like a maniac. If inspiration does not come to him in the salon, he clutches his papers and goes to his bedroom, or to his wife's boudoir. Sometimes the waltz begun in the parlor is finished in the kitchen. Mme. Strauss, who appreciates her husband's habits, has half a dozen pianos scattered through the house, and in each room a table with writing materials, so that in whatever nook her husband finds himself he is quite at home. Mme. Strauss was once a favorite actress on the Vienna stage.

GAME WAS A FINE DISPLAY OF SKILL

CHICAGO PAPER COMMENTS ON WISCONSIN CONTEST.

Players Took a Clean, Sportsman's View of a Tangled Situation—Game Was Exciting and Spectacular—Fulfilled the Purpose For Which Football Was Designed.

"The greatest foot ball game Chicago will see this season is over, ane the most bitter athletic controversy which has agitated western people was settled when the Chicago and Wisconsin teams trotted upon Marshall Field on Saturday. Considering the circumstances, it is perhaps best all around that the score should have rested at the figures it did. Chicago had far the better teams, but yet the score rests at a ration which will incline to prolong friendly relations between the two universities. While the figures better represent Chicago's efforts than they do Wisconsin's it is perhaps well that the Midway school should be content for the farther-reaching results of continued sportsmanlike rivalry.

"The Wisconsin team while here decried the reports which have come from Madison concerning considered wholesale protests of Chicago players. They took the laudable position of "bring on your whole team; we'll play them first, and protest afterward." Captain Pat O'Dea was the leader in these sentiments, although the men held strongly to the same ideas.

"It was a clean, sportsman's view of a tangled situation, and through all of the personal estrangements and private difficulties of the individuals this idea shone clear, The Wisconsin men, personally, are an apparently honest lot of men, and it seems almost vicious that the relations between them and a like sort of the University of Chicago should have been and continue to be so strained. However, their annual meeting on the field has done much toward settling their differences, and will probably do more in the future.

"The game itself was severely disappointing to the knowing ones, although what it detracted from their ideal of what it should be as scientific football it gained in excitement and spectacular features. By all the logic of football, Chicago should have won by a score of 18 or 21 to 0. It lost half of these points by the failure of the aerial route to the goal posts, and the rest it lost by Wisconsin's puzzling and seemingly almost supernatural defense.

"As it resulted, it was one of the most successful games, from the amusement standpoint, ever presented. There were all sorts of football and excitement, and even the lovers of the fine points of the game were glad to forswear a portion of their quiet enjoyment of the science for the sake of the excitement and the uncertainty."

Great Britain's Warlike Moves.

Berlin, Nov. 14.—The Hannoversche Courier asserts that the present warlike attitude of Great Britain is based on the assumption that the czar will not fight at present. Nevertheless, the Courier believes that Salisbury feels constrained to act prudently, for the proclamation of a protectorate over Egypt would virtually be construed as a declaration of war.

May Be the Last Conference.

Madrid, Nov. 14.—El Imparcial says the government has forwarded instructions to Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish peace commission at Paris, and that to-day's conference may be the last or the last but one "unless the American commissioners moderate their claim." According to El Imparcial a member of the cabinet has virtually declared as much.

Gomez Gets Rid of Americans.

Santiago de Cuba, Nov. 14.—Capt. Warren, an American who has been with Gen. Maximo Gomez, says the latter will no longer have Americans about him and is getting rid of them as fast as possible. He takes the same course in the case of Cubans suspected of favoring annexation to the United States.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 14.—Another of the surprises of the Minnesota election came out Sunday, when it was discovered, on checking up the returns, that Thomas Canty, democrat, had been elected justice of the state supreme court for the next six years over Charles L. WAS UNWORTHY OF TRUST

Solicitor of the Waukesha Y. M. C. A. Goes Wrong.

W. B. Brocchus, solicitor of the Y. M. C. A., of Waukesha, by whom the Janesville delegation that recently visited the Spring City, was entertained, is under a cloud. This fall he made two trips to the east, soliciting money to raise the debt on the association property. He returned showing subscriptions, signed by prominent men of eastern cities amounting in all to $6,000, sufficient with the $1,000 pledged by the Woman's Auxiliary, to cancel the full obligations on the property. It is now ascertained that these subscriptions are all bogus. Some of the persons whose names appear signed to substantial subscriptions were never approached by Mr. Brocchus at all.

When confronted with these facts Mr. Brocchos made a full confession admitting his guilt. He said at one time that he was addicted to the morphine habit and at another time he denied this statement. He gave no reason at all adequate to explain his extraordinary conduct. He was advised to leave town and he went. It was felt that the matter must be suppressed until after the convention. It was given out that Mr. Brocchus was sick. Some people noticed that the convention program contained no jubilee over the lifting of the local debt, as this was naturally expected under the circumstances.

Brocchus was not an authorized worker of the Y. M. C. A., but was picked up for the special work of raising funds for the payment of the debt of the institution. His conduct proves that they made a mistake in their selection.

EUROPE FEARS TO MEDDLE.

Are Willing to Wound, but Afraid to Strike.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S DECISION.

He Will Visit Spain Incognito—Story That America Demands Only Part of the Philippines Is Utterly Without Foundation.

Madrid, Nov. 14.—The Spanish government has intimated to various foreign ambassadors that it expects to be compelled to relinquish sovereignty over the Philippines.

These intimations were given in response to inquiries as to the purport of the visit of Emperor William to certain Spanish ports.

Climax of Peace Negotiations.

London, Nov. 14.—The dispatches from Paris agree in stating that the peace negotiations have reached a climax. They repeat that French sympathy is all for Spain, which, however, is advised to submit, as it is foolish to expect assistance from Europe.

Spain's exaggeration of the significance of Emperor William's visit to Cartagena or Cadiz has resulted in an emphatic declaration from Berlin that his majesty will travel absolutely incognito, and that it is not likely that he will land on Spanish soil.

The Havas news agency has communicated to the French press a statement that Germany, in the emperor's absence, confines herself to the defense of her commercial interests in the Philippines, but there would possibly be a change in her attitude as soon as his majesty returns to Berlin.

The National Zeitung of Berlin protests against this statement and says that its object is to awaken mistrust of Germany in the mind of the government of the United States.

This incident is typical of the continental intrigue which is willing to wound, yet is afraid to strike. Each country wishes the other to initiate measures for preventing the entrance of the United States as a power in Asia.

Europe Fears to Meddle.

The Times, commenting on the situation, declares that certain continental powers would have wished to interfere in favor of Spain, but were afraid to do so, and says:

"Spain cannot be surprised at the intimation that discussion of the question of the cession of the Philippines must end this week. The American government and people are the sole judges of what is fitting to exact from America's vanquished foe.

"We would rather see the Philippines in the hands of the Americans than in those of any European power. Their acquisition marks the emergence of the United States from the isolated position they have hitherto occupied, and places them in line with the other English-speaking communities as important factors in the politics of the world.

"The Americans are probably aware that, had the enterprise seemed safer, the intentions of Russia and some other powers might have covered interference with the American arrangements for following up the war.

"However, we may take it that such interference is no longer contemplated, and the coveted station in the Pacific will pass quietly into the hands of the United States."

Will Take All Philippines.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The report published in New York Sunday that the president has decided to ask Spain to relinquish only a part of the Philippines is laughed at as most ridiculous by members of the cabinet. What its purpose was is not clear, unless it is a part of another effort to encourage Spain to hold out and compel the resumption of hostilities.

There has been no attempt to disguise the purpose of the administration to keep the whole archipelago, or that the instructions sent to Paris several weeks ago were explicit on that point. The instructions sent Saturday were to the effect that this question could not much longer be considered one for negotiations, that Spain must concede that point and proceed to the consideration of the arrangements by which the transfer should be made.

The American commissioners will be ready to discuss the question of paying Spain for her pacific expenditures, but they will not much longer discuss the question of Spain's relinquishing her pretension of sovereignty over the islands. She now exercises no sovereignty there except by sufferance of the United States, and the president desires no further discussion over that point.

GAVE SAGASTA HOPE.

Three Powers Promised Aid—Plans Upset by Great Britain.

London, Nov. 14.—A well-known public man who has just returned from Paris, where he was enabled to gather much information and to form an impartial opinion as to the merits of the Spanish and American contentions, made the following statement:

"The situation seemed to me more serious a week ago than it does today, although I still think it possible that the concerns which center at Paris may yet menace the peace of the world. Sagasta, of course, for the moment thinks that Spain can make a stand against the United States in the event of hostilities being reopened, but he does not rely on the force of Spanish arms.

"Although Premier Sagasta may possibly be speaking the truth when he says he is not about to send a note of protest to the European powers, yet it is a known fact that about a month ago he unofficially consulted the representatives at Madrid of Austria, Russia and France. From them he gathered that Spain would have at least the moral support of those three powers in refusing to transfer the Philippines to the United States. Once more, however, Great Britain has check-mated the Spanish game. The recent display of Great Britain's sea strength was meant to impose on the powers a sense of her might, in view of the proposed concerted action, rather than merely to overawe France in respect to the Fashoda dispute. The desired purpose it signally accomplished."

Flames Attack Troop Train.

Sedalia, Mo., Nov. 14.—The officers and men of Companies I, G, K and E, Twelfth United States infantry, who assisted in the assault on El Caney during the Santiago campaign, had a narrow escape at an early hour Sunday morning. The soldiers were being conveyed over the Missouri Pacific from Jefferson barracks, St. Louis, to Fort Riley, Kan. Between Otterville and Smithton, twelve miles east of here, the train of twelve Pullman coaches and a baggage car was discovered to be on fire. The soldiers became panic-stricken for a few moments, but retreated in an orderly manner to the rear coaches. The engineer rushed the train into East Sedalia at a rate of seventy miles an hour, where firemen were in waiting, and the flames were extinguished.

Rushing Work on Warships.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 14.—The orders to work night and day on the gunboat Princeton, now at the navy yard, and to rush work on other vessels causes surprise among the officials. The Princeton, it is known, is to join the North Atlantic squadron, now assembling in Hampton Roads, and as this fleet is expected to be ready for instant service this explains the rush on the gunboat. But the monitors Puritan and Terror are also included in the rush order. As it is improbable that these warships will again be attached to a squadron of evolution the cause for haste in their case is not apparent.

Will Visit Santiago.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The military investigating commission has decided to go to Cuba and make thorough and complete its investigation of the conduct of the war. It has examined army officers of all grades and medical authorities, and has visited the camps in this country. The commission will go to Santiago and there practically conclude its investigation before preparing its report.

Supplies for Dewey's Fleet.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 14.—Twenty thousand six-pound shells will be shipped to the Mare island navy yard at once. Three freight cars will be required to convey the ammunition across the continent. It is to be forwarded to Dewey's fleet.

May Pay Debt to Government.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 14.—It is stated in railroad circles here, apparently on good authority, that the Central Pacific's debt to the government will soon be settled in full. It is said the necessary funds will be procured by the placing of a blanket mortgage on all of the Central Pacific's properties in a sufficient sum to retire not only the government's lien, but the entire first mortgages. The government obligation amounts to $59,000,000. Other bonds raise the total debt to $118,000,000, but the company has $13,000,000, which leaves $105,000,000 to be included in the blanket mortgage.

A Sure Sign of Croup.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and find that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. A Perfect Performance.

At a variety entertainment given in aid of a popular institution, one of the "turns" was a ventriloquist. As this gentleman was recognized as one of the cleverest members of his profession, his appearance was looked forward to with much interest. At last it came. The stage attendants carried on to the stage three dressed figures seated in chairs as usual. The professor followed, and then went through an astonishing performance. No one could detect a muscle of his face move during the laughable dialogues, and the changes of voice seemed marvelous. On retiring the applause was deafening, and the ventrilouquist had to return again and again to thank the audience for their appreciation. A couple of minutes or so after, when the audience were talking among themselves as to how it was done, they were thunderstruck to see the three figures get up from the chairs and walk off the stage also; but on realizing how completely they had been "sold," the laughter was uproarious. The professor had got three of his friends to take the place of his usual "lay" figures for that night only.

Traveling Companions.

Travelers often prove by their experiences that under certain conditions all men are equal. A German banker traveling by rail in a first-class carriage toward Vienna, had as a fellow-traveler at one of the intermediate stations an old gentleman, who entered into conversation and proved very pleasant. The banker got out before his companion, and as he did so asked the gentleman how far he was going. The gentleman replied, "To Vienna." "I have a daughter very well married there," said the banker. "I should like to give you a note of introduction to her." "I have also a daughter very well married there," said the other. "Would it be too great a liberty to ask the name?" inquired the banker. "My daughter," the gentleman answered, "is married to the Emperor of Austria." It was the old king of Bavaria.

CONSULTING A WOMAN.

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Inspires Confidence and Hope.

She puts it off as long as she dare, and is only driven to it by fear of cancer, polypus, or some dreadful ill.

Most frequently such a woman leaves a physician's office where she has undergone a critical examination with an impression, more or less, of discouragement.

This condition of the mind destroys the effect of advice; and she grows worse rather than better. In consulting Mrs. Pinkham no hesitation need be felt, the story is told to a woman and is wholly confidential. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass., she offers sick women her advice without charge.

Her intimate knowledge of women's troubles makes her letter of advice a wellspring of hope, and her wide experience and skill point the way to health.

"I suffered with ovarian trouble for seven years, and no doctor knew what was the matter with me. I had spells which would last for two days or more. I thought I would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken seven bottles of it, and am entirely cured."—MRS JOHN FOREMAN, 26 N. Woodberry Ave., Baltimore, Md.

THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY,
Chicago. St. Louis. New York. Philadelphia. Boston.

Reasons Why. . .

Do you prefer buying your Groceries at a clean, well kept store where the floors are washed often and where dust is an unknown quantity on the shelves, where the goods are arranged in a manner to make them inviting enough to eat when you see them, where Groceries old and musty are unknown, where everybody connected with the establishment is doing their utmost to please you, where if you have any complaint to make (and you know that you often do) it is listened to pleasantly and everything possible that can be done to right the matter is done, where your Groceries are delivered when you want them and when they are promised to be delivered, where the prices are so low that the balance is always in your favor.

Your inclinations certainly do not naturally draw you to the store where the first impression on entering the door is unpleasant - where the goods lay around hit or miss, some on the floor, a few piled on the shelves, but more of them laying around loosely, where the dusting and sweeping (whenever it is done) is rushed through with in the quickest possible manner, where the dirt is piled up in one corner, where the clerks are in no hurry to wait upon you and when they do you are not perfectly certain of getting the best there is nor what you expected to get, where low prices are perhaps made but it is always a question as to the quality.

The comparison drawn here is not too strong. You get all the attention talked of in the first part at our store, and none of that spoken of in the latter part of this ad. Why not make this your trading place?

CHAIRMAN TREAT'S WORK

"The engine that makes the most noise is not the one that does the most work. It is the same with political committees. When Chairman Joseph B. Treat came in from Monroe to take the manegement of the republican campaign, his advent was not preceded with a flourish of trumpets nor accompanied by a brass band. He surrounded himself with men as quiet as himself. The secretary of the republican state central committee, Gardner P. Stickney, is noted for studious disposition and methodical habits, as well as for alertness and geniality. The committee has worked incessantly but unbraggingly. Wherever there was work to be done it has been ready to assist. It has not thrown away money on doubtful projects. It has indeed had little to spend but has spent that little judiciously. It would tax the ingenuity of the best posted politicians to recall a better managed campaign than that which has just been carried to successful conclusion."

The Chicago police arrested another "Willie Tascott" Saturday, but he proved to be some one else. Unless a sharp watch is kept on the Chicago sleuths they'll find Charley Ross one of these crisp fall days.

There seems to be something about the Maria Teresa that leads her crews to desire to "take to the woods." First a Spanish crew became affected, and later an American crew appears to have had a very similar attack.

"Military lockjaw" will probably fail to prevent Col. W. J. Bryan from making a few terse remarks—in the privacy of his own tent—concerning the fact that Nebraska will send a republican to the United States senate.

A "fish trust" has been formed at Chicago with a capital stock of $5,500,000. The attorney general should attack this combination. It would be easy to prove that it was a "scaly organization."

Before tackling the Tammany tiger, Theodore Roosevelt slew the ferocious Rocky mountain grizzly bear in the fastness of the western wilds. Hence, the striped beast was easy prey for him.

A Kansas City woman, in a fit of anger, threw her baby at her drunken husband, and the infant got the worst of the engagement. Thus are the sins of the father visited upon the son.

And now the "hero of the Spanish war" who stood off the plagues at Santiago with a patent medicine sees his picture printed as a central figure in half-page newspaper ads.

The appointment of Congressman Cooper as chairman of the committee on Rivers and Harbors, would be an honor to Wisconsin as well as to the able congressman.

The Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin thinks that if the Maria Teresa can be boarded as readily as she was abandoned, perhaps she can be saved, after all

It might not be a bad idea to appoint General Lee military governor of North Carolina instead of sending him to Havana.

Fusion cuts both ways. In the south it killed the populist party, while in the north democracy was slain.

Rock county, Minnesota, also went republican.

And the dog, it seems, was "beaten properly."

WAS ABSENTMINDED.

But She Had an Experience That Probably Cured Her.

It was at the Saturday afternoon performance, and they were two girls, rather prettily dressed in those shirt waists and skirts which look so well on any woman, whether they fit or not and regardless of the material they are made of. They entered the theater a little late and hurried to their seats, not wishing to lose a second of the vaudeville.

Along toward the last half of the programme out came a minstrel, one of those who can make a confidential talk to the audience. He joshed the girls and boys about their little weaknesses, with a true insight into the state of mind of the mollycoddle, vealy kind of youth, and roars of laughter and endless snickerings went up from all over the audience.

The boy and his best girl giggled and nudged each other and looked cat's eyes at one another until it seemed as if the minstrel had positively made the young element of his audience silly. It was fun all along the line.

"Then you know how it is," said the minstrel. "You know. Um-m! When the light is out and pa and ma have gone up stairs. (He giggled. So did the girls giggle.) And Charlie puts his arm around you—and," he smacked his lips with apparent rare enjoyment, "and—well, you know." More snickering and laughter.

"Well," he said, "I'll bet you, now, anything you want that there isn't a girl in this room who was not kissed by her sweetheart before she entered the door, and I'll prove it to you, see if I don't. Is there any girl in the audience who wasn't kissed by her sweetheart before she came in? If so, will she please stand up?"

One of the young girls in shirt waists who had been thrown into utter oblivion of the audience by the talk of the minstrel rose to her feet involuntarily, and then came to self consciousness and sat down, red in the face as a beet, but not before the audience had caught sight of her and set up a shout that was dismaying. She tried to sink behind her companion, but could not. Just as it became unbearable the lights went down for the next act, and when they came up again the girl was gone.—Denver Times.

Milk!

'Twas a warm October night and the silvery moon cast glimmering shadows about the woody glen, through which the rippling brook tumbled on toward the Raritan canal. He was but a freshman, and she—fair one—was the buxom daughter of a tiller of the soil. They had met at a harvest home.

"Chauncey," she lisped, with the sweetest of Jersey accents, "why do they call that the milky way?" And she turned her light green eyes toward the heavens.

"Lizzie," he cried in ardent tones as he clasped her to his breast, "it is because the stars are condensed there."

Just then the moon went out.—Princeton Tiger.

Glaring Exception.

"Well, what new light have you got on that subject?" asked Sflint.

WORDS OF WISDOM FROM THE PULPIT

MR. KEMPTON DISCOURSES ON TRUE AND FALSE MOTIVES.

Good Intent Often Makes Amends For Poor Performance—Gems From the Sunday Discourses of Rev. Walter A. Hall of Court Street Church.

The subject for Mr. Kempton's morning sermon was "True Motives and False." His text was in Matt 6: 1 to 18.

The worth of any action is valued according to the motive behind it.

God looks at our hearts. Are you living a religious life because it pays, or do you really love God and serve him because you thus love him?

The temptation to display our piety is great. That is a false motive and Christ tells us to take heed not to do our good works that others may see us do them. Christ bids us turn away from man service and to turn our lives towards himself.

God would have us live for God's glory. This is the right motive.

This motive will express itself towards God, others and ourselves.

Notice our motives in religious giving.

There is nothing that men so dread as to let the public know how little they give for God's cause. What is the motive that impels us to give? Is it that men may know that we are giving, or that we may honestly help as God has prospered us?

Again, Christ warns us to have right motives in prayer. Pray that you may glorify God. Have your closet of prayer where you can truly meet your heavenly Father. Use not vain repetitions, simply speaking words without any heart in it.

Christ shows us here the true motive for self denial. It should be for the honor of God, not for our own glory. The love of God in the heart must be expressed in acts of self denial. All that we have and are should be given for the sake of Christ. Notice that all shall receive their true reward. Those who have lived for self will receive their rewards here; those who have truly lived for God will receive their reward, perhaps not here, but it may be over there. Those who have shown self denial shall be greatly rewarded. May God help us to have the right motives to control our lives.

In the evening Mr. Kempton gave a very earnest sermon upon "The Credentials of Love," to a large audience. Baptism and the ten-minute after meeting followed the sermon.

APHORISMS FROM THE PULPIT.

Pregnant Passages from Yesterday's Sermon by Rev. W. A. Hall.

The following are a few of the best things spoken by the pastor of Court Street church yesterday afternoon:

Thoreau says: "It takes two to speak the truth. One to speak and one to listen." When Jesus finds a listener, his truths outshine suns, outreach the universe and are perenuial and eternal.

* * *

Man to man obscure was to Jesus transparent as the air sun lighted. He took hold upon man so surely, because he saw him so clearly.

* * *

Our Savior was truth's living illustration and truth's most powerful illustrator.

* * *

The record of Christ's doing chimes with a music increasingly glorious down the charmed centuries.

* * *

My friends, you say and effect not, because you say and do not. Doing is a long distance telephone. By it, one speaks not a few feet but a thousand miles. Doing gives words carrying power not in one but in every direction.

* * *

You remember how Lawrence Sterne speaking of Uncle Toby says: "There was that in his looks and voice and manner superadded, which eternally beckoned to the unfortunate to come and take shelter under him." What of sweetest tenderness must there have been in Christ, that speaking so far away and in cold types, he so invites today. Love lights his words for two thousand years.

* * *

One inexpressibly sad thing in perdition will be the thought that God's great love put the pavements of gold down to the level of your feet, and that you refused to walk them.

* * *

When Gop Almighty director of stars and sparrows and guide of men put his hands on my head to set me apart as his minister he gave me a special commission. It was this: "Preach the word."

New Figs

We have just received a large invoice of California washed figs, this year's crop, put up in ½, ¾ and one pound boxes. A very choice variety. The ½ lb. boxes are 15c, ¾ lb. 20c, and the 1 lb. boxes 30c. We also have the 1 lb packages at 20c. They are the Olive Grove brand and the choicest American grown fruit. Fancy new Smyrna figs 25c per pound. The fig crop of the entire world is only about half what it was last season, consequently the price is almost double. The chances are that before another crop there will be no figs at any price. The fruit is scarce. Sanborn.

Old Medal Plowed Up.

A Sioux, Iowa, jeweler has an interesting relic in the form of a medal cast in 1609 in commemoration of the consummation of a treaty of peace between certain Indian tribes of the Sioux valley and the United States. On one side the medal bears a bas-relief portrait of President Madison and the words: "James Madison, president of the United States, 1809." On the obverse there are symbolical devices, one being a pipe and tomahawk crossed, the pipe overlaying the weapon, indicative that peace is supreme over war. A pair of clasped hands are shown, the wrist of one hand being bare and the other showing the embroidered cuff of a soldier's coat sleeve. This particular medal was plowed up in Nebraska, and was about six inches underneath the surface of the ground. It is of silver.

Citizen and Belle.

A man and a woman are employed in different offices in one of our large buildings. Each office has a telephone, but as it happens one is an instrument belonging to the Citizens' Company, the other a Bell instrument. One day the man had occasion to use the Citizens' line and stepped across the hall to the lady's office. "Have you a Citizens' 'phone?" he asked, and she replied in the affirmative. "Well," he ventured, "I'm a citizen. May I use it?" Why, of course he might use it. An hour later she balanced the accounts with him. "Have you a Bell telephone?" she asked, on stepping into his office. He did not try to deny it. "Well, I'm a belle. May I use it?"—Grand Rapids Press.

A Divorce That Was Necessary.

Miss Appleby of Bolivar, Mo., went to Savannah, Ga., last week, where on Friday she had an engagement to marry J. K. Bedell, a wealthy rice planter. In order that Mr. Bedell could keep his engagement it was necessary for him to procure a divorce from Mrs. Bedell No. 1. He had arranged to do this several days previous to Friday, but owing to the great storm in that section he came near being disappointed. The judge understanding the case drove many miles through the storm, fording streams, to reach the courthouse to grant the decree in time. Bedell had a few hours' leeway and was saved further embarrassment.

A Naval Officer's Story.

One of the officers of the battleship Iowa tells of a thrilling scene which occurred on its deck soon after Cervera and his officers came aboard after the destruction of their squadron. Capt. Eulate had offered his sword to Capt. Evans and the latter had returned it, saying that he could not accept it from so brave a man. The party was invited down to the skipper's cabin to "take something." As Eulate entered the companionway he stopped and turned, lifted his cap and in a most dramatic way extended his arms and exclaimed: "Adios Vizcaya." At that instant, as if in response to his farewell, there was a tremendous eruption from the burning cruiser and immediately after a deafening explosion. One of the magazines had blown up. Eulate buried his face in his hands and sobbed. It was some moments before he recovered from his agitation.

The Smallest Inhabited Islands.

The smallest inhabited island in the world is that on which the Eddystone Lighthouse stands. At low water it is 30 feet in diameter; at high water the lighthouse, whose diameter at the base is 28 3-4 feet, completely covers it. It is inhabited by three persons. It lies nine miles off the Cornish coast and fourteen miles southwest of Plymouth Breakwater. Flatholme, an island in the British channel, is only a mile and a half in circumference, but, consisting mostly of rich pasture land, supports a farmhouse besides the lighthouse, with a revolving light 165 feet above the sea.

BELOIT BATTLE COMES INTO COURT.

The Defendant is Discharged—The Row Grew Out of a Clothesline Disagreement—One Man Says He Was Asleep While Engaged In the Ruction.

The assault and battery case against Broughton was tried before Justice Booth at Beloit. A contention over a clothes line was the direct cause which precipitated a row in which the two sons of Broughton's neigbor, W. H. Winn, were worsted, one of them, it is alleged, remaining unconscious for over seventy-five hours. It was brought out in the testimony that Elmer Winn attempted to place a pole on a vacant lot between the neighbors, and which was jointly used by them for various purposes. Mr. Broughton objected to what he thought to be a trespass, and interfered. Blows were exchanged, a knife, pliers and iron bar emphasized the melee, and the boys were laid out.

Walked in His Sleep

The prosecution was carried on by Attorney Rood and the defense by Silas W. Menzie. One interesting bit of evidence was that offered in the testimony of Elmer Winn, who says he retired early in the evening, and after falling asleep knew absolutely nothing until he regained consciousness four days later. Still his mother testified that she called him and he arose and dressed and went out to the scene of the conflict and took part in the fuss and received the blow from an iron bar in the hands of Broughton, which felled him to the ground. The defendant was discharged.

MRS. CARSE IS CONFIDENT.

Believes Her Temple Scheme Will Be Accepted.

HAS $420,000 TO REPORT.

Says She Will Go Ahead Herself If the W. C. T. U. Convention Refuses—Fate of the Building Will Be Decided Today.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 14.—The ladies of the National W. C. T. U. are ready for the battle over the Chicago temple. There is much speculation as to just what it is that Mrs. Matilda Carse is holding in reserve on the question. It is very certain that those who are rallying about her are confident of success. If, as some delegates said Friday, "nothing but a miracle can save the temple now," the question is, "Has the miracle really happened?"

In reply to a question along this line Mrs. Carse said: "I have over $420,000 in bonds and cash to report at the convention to-day." This was the first positive statement so far given out by the temple people. It may mean victory.

If the convention does not support the temple, Mrs. Carse is determined to go ahead with the work herself, and claims the rank and file are with her.

The temple trustees are trying to have the temple matter decided by ballot and not by motion from the floor. The temple faction fears the adverse influence which will be brought to bear if the matter is settled on motion, and will endeavor, through an early motion to that effect, to have the action taken by ballot. The states are being quietly polled and the result is said to have been very satisfactory so far.

Mrs. Stevens called the meeting to order at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon and Miss Anna A. Gordon of Chicago, assistant secretary of the World's W. C. T. U., read the scripture. The annual sermon was delivered by Miss E. W. Greenwood, national superintendent of the evangelistic department. The pulpits of a majority of the churches of St. Paul and Minneapolis were filled during the morning and evening services by delegates to the convention.

VIRDEN STRIKE IS SETTLED.

Coal Miners Agree to Tear Down the Stockade.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—The Virden coal miners will do in a peaceable manner what they threatened to do in the heat of battle some weeks ago—tear down the stockade erected by the Chicago-Virden Coal company. What is now recognized as one of the bitterest contentions between miners and operators in this state has come to a peaceful termination, and the miners are preparing to re-enter the pits which they deserted when the company refused to pay the scale decided upon by the Chicago convention. The settlement was made Saturday. The coal company agreed to pay the union scale of 40 cents a ton. It hesitated when it came to the proposition of the men that the stockade be torn down. That stockade was an expensive affair, and it would cost much to remove it. A happy thought came to the representatives of the miners. They suggested that they would tear it down without expense to the company. Good feeling prevailed, and the officers of the company agreed to this proposition.

Window-Glass Plants to Open.

Anderson, Ind., Nov. 14.—All the window glass plants in the country are being put in operation, the result of an agreement between the manufacturers' and workers' national wage committees, whereby the differences that have kept the plants closed since last July will be left to arbitration, the plants to operate pending settlement. The difference now is but 3 per cent. About 30,000 men thus go to work.

Alexandria, Ind., Nov. 14.—The three window glass factories here have resumed operations, after being idle for about five months. Twelve hundred men will be given employment.

Would Tax Tea and Coffee.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 14.—In an interview Senator Hanna said the tariff would have to be revised to meet existing conditions. "The war revenue measure," he said, "must be revised, but we will keep many of the original features of the law simply because it is now necessary. Under the old tariff law we are not getting very much revenue, because we are exporting instead of importing, and something must be done to meet these new conditions. We must have a new revenue measure. So far as I am concerned, I favor putting a duty on tea and coffee."

Heavy Snowstorm in Kansas.

Larned, Kan., Nov. 14.—This section of the state was visited by the heaviest snow of the season Saturday night and Sunday. The ground was covered to a depth of three to four inches and the storm was much heavier in counties north and west of here. The winter wheat will be benefited.

TROOPS ARE OFF FOR CUBA.

Half of the Eighth Cavalry Leaves Savannah for Nuevitas.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 14.—Six troops of the Eighth United States cavalry sailed on the government transport Manitoba Sunday for Nuevitas, Cuba. On board the Manitoba also were Gen. Carpenter and his staff. The six troops numbered about 700 men, and they took about 100 horses, besides a quantity of supplies and rations. Gen. F. V. Greene of the Second division left on a special train for Tampa, whence he will go to Havana to-night. Gen. Greene is accompanied by about twenty officers and a detail of engineers. They go to Havana to prepare for the coming of the Seventh corps. An order has been issued to the effect that the Seventh corps is to be armed with the Krag-Jorgensen rifles in place of the Springfield, which the volunteers have been using.

DIES AFTER A CONFESSION.

Murderer of Aged Couple at Michicott, Wis., Hangs Himself.

Manitowoc, Wis., Nov. 14.—Ernest Messman who last Sunday murdered Mr. and Mrs. John Bahls, a wealthy and aged couple at Michicott, twelve miles from here, committed suicide yesterday at the jail by hanging himself in his cell. He made full confession Friday, but the sheriff did not make it public because of the threats that have been made to lynch him. In his confession Messman said he killed the Bahlses because he knew they had considerable money in the house. He took Bahls to the barn and slew him with an ax and returned to the house and killed the woman with a stone. He searched for the money, but was frightened away, and did not get a penny of the $7,000 that was hidden in jars in the cellar.

May Be Made a Governor.

London, Nov. 14.—The Malta correspondent of the Daily Mail says it is reported that Lieut.-Gen. Sir Francis Wallace Grenfell, inspector-general of auxiliary forces and in supreme command of the operations conducted by the sirdar, Gen. Kitchener for the reconquest of the Egyptian provinces in the Soudan, will be the next governor of Malta.

Throws Powder in a Stove.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

BOONE, IOWA, Dec. 14.

No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.

MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

Three to two,

Favorite Base Burners have three hot air flues. Other stoves have but two.

Never noticed the flues?

Most people haven't.

Flues carry the heat from the fire pot around the stove. In a three-flue stove (the Favorite) two flues carry the heat down the outer edges of back and around the extreme outer edges of base to the front of the stove. Here they unite and return across the center of base and up the center of back.

Three flues on the back of stove, three flues on the base of stove.

A two-flue stove has but one flue down and one flue up.

The three-flue arrangement spreads the heat to the extreme outer surfaces of the back and of the base.

The more heating surface you have the less coal you waste.

TO DESTROY THE BUFFALO.

Cruiser's Sailors Charged with a Grave Crime.

INVESTIGATION GOING ON.

Suspicion Rests on Engineers Who Are Said to Have Objected to Prolonging Their Services to the Nation—Sea Valve Tampered With.

Newport, R. I., Nov. 14.—Notwithstanding unusual secrecy sought to be maintained by the court of inquiry now on board the cruiser Buffalo investigating the recent disabling of the warship, enough has leaked out to warrant the belief that its condition was not due to accident but to design.

It is said that the work of the court of inquiry has been transformed from the original purpose of investigating the responsibility for a mishap to that of locating the culpability for a proposed crippling of the vessel, which all but sent it to the bottom.

A man who is in a position to know the truth, but the revelation of whose names would work him great injury, tells this story:

"As soon as the Buffalo cast anchor here an examination of the machinery was made and an appaling condition was revealed.

"There was evidence that the sea valve had been tampered with, and a sailor's 'ditty bag 'was found stuffed in one of the condensers, rendering it practically useless.

"There is no doubt that the cruiser had a narrow escape at sea, and there is reason to believe that the dissatisfactio nof the crew had much to do with the alleged accident. The sailors are known to have held the Buffalo in abhorrence and to have referred to it frequently as 'hell ship.'"

Buffalo Purposely Crippled.

New York, Nov. 14.—It is believed by many at the New York navy yard that the condition of the Buffalo may be traced to some of its engineers, who are said to have objected to the trip to Manila on the ground that they were enlisted for only one year, and that the proposed expedition meant a service of three years longer. When the Buffalo was ordered to sea 198 of the crew "jumped ship."

No Information at Washington.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Secretary Long has received a telegram from Newport stating that the cruiser Buffalo has received the necessary repairs and is ready for sea. Officials at the navy department say that no information has been received to indicate that the disabling of the cruiser was intentional.

Charlton Robbers Escape.

Charlton, Iowa, Nov. 14.—The posse searching for the robbers who looted the county treasurer's office of $3,000 and a large quantity of bonds Saturday has had no success. The county will not lose over $3,000, for the bonds belonged mostly to farmers and business men of that section, who had placed them in the treasurer's vault for safe keeping. Part of the money stolen consisted of $2,000 in silver dollars. The men used horses, and the money was taken away in bags.

To Become Ambassador.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The state department has received formal notification that Austria-Hungary is about to raise its legation in Washington to the rank of an embassy. This government is invited to co-operate in the good will thus displayed by Emperor Francis Joseph and to elevate the United States legation at Vienna to a similar rank. The state department will immediately take steps to comply with the courteous invitation of the Austrian government.

Great Britain Cannot Recede.

London, Nov. 14.—Sir Edward Gray, Liberal member of parliament for the Berwick-on-Tweed division of Northumberland, speaking at Ashington, voiced the opinion of Liberals on the subject of Egypt's future, saying that although Great Britain went to Egypt prosyecting and intending to evacuate, circumstances had created fresh obligations, resulting in a position which any British government was bound to maintain.

Li Hung Chang Again Suffers.

Peking, Nov. 14.—Li Hung Chang has been ordered to proceed to Tsi-Nan, capital of the Province of Shantung, to concert measures with the viceroy of Shan-tung to prevent future inundations of the Yellow River (Hoang-ho). This appointment is regarded as virtually shelving Prince Li.

Suffragists Meet Tomorrow.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 14.—The twenty-ninth annual state convention of the equal suffragists of Illinois will be held in the capitol Tuesday and Wednesday, and several women of prominence will deliver addresses. It is expected that the convention will be one of the most interesting yet held.

France Builds Battleships.

London, Nov. 14.—The Daily Mail says that the French naval construction program for 1899 includes two battleships of 14,500 tons each, with very powerful armanent and protection; two cruisers of 4,000 tons each, two large torpedo-boat destroyers and eleven torpedo boats.

Football in the West.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Chicago and Princeton—these were the victors in the two great football contests Saturday, and the strangest part of it all is that both of them won by exactly the same score, 6 to 0. The victory of the maroon eleven, together with the success of Michigan in the Illinois game, simplifies the championship problem in the west, and to the Chicago-Michigan Thanksgiving game will attach an importance that has not applied to any previous game between these old rivals. It will be truly a championship contest.

New Scheme of Spanish Financiers.

Madrid, Nov. 14.—The ministry of finance has in hand a project for the conversion of the Spanish exterior bonds and the funded debts of Cuba and the Philippines, the idea being to maintain the treasury guaranties of Philippine bonds and Cuban bonds of the 6 and 5 per cent denominations, but to reduce the interest to 3½ and 3 per cent respectively. This partially accounts for the firmness of Cuban bonds in Paris and Berlin, where speculation in them is unusually active.

Marchand Goes to Fashoda.

Cairo, Nov. 14.—Major Marchand, Capt. Baratier, and the Senegalese soldiers acting as their escort has started for Fashoda. He will arrive at Fashoda about November 24, and will proceed thence up the Sabot river as far as it is navigable, which is about 350 miles. Then his expedition will move straight to Addis Adeba, from which place they will march to Jibutil, which it is expected they will reach in June.

A PECULIAR REMEDY.

The Rev. F. J. Bell, a highly esteemed minister residing in Weedsport, Cayuga, Co., N. Y., in a recent letter writes as follows: "There has never been anything that I have taken that has relieved the Dyspepsia from which I suffered for ten years except the new remedy called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Since taking them I have had no distress at all after eating and again after long years CAN SLEEP WELL. Rev. F. J. Bell Weedsport, N. Y., formerly Hildalia, Colo.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a remarkable remedy, not only because it is a certain cure for all forms of indigestion, but because it seems to act as thoroughly in old chronic cases of Dyspepsia as well as in mild attacks of indigestion or biliousness A person has dyspepsia simply because the stomach is overworked, all it wants is a harmless, vegetable remedy to digest the food and thus give it the much needed rest.

This is the secret of the success of this peculiar remedy. No matter how weak or how much disordered the digestion may be, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food whether the stomach works or not. New life and energy is given not only to the stomach but to every organ and nerve in the body. A trial of this splendid medicine will convince the most skeptical that Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles can be cured. The tablets are prepared by the F. A. Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich., but so popular has the remedy become that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can now be obtained at any drug store at 50 cents per package. Send for book on stomach diseases free.

and are reaching out a greater distance each year, getting a firmer foothold with the stove-buyers of Rock county. Our thirty years and over of unparallelled stove selling has been the means of securing for us a reputation most enviable. The stoves we have handled have played a strong part in the expansion of our business. Five of the best and truest stoves that anyone could wish to put out to the trade are doing much toward extending our business this season to a great degree.

Garlands, Peninsulars, Radiant Home, Round Oak, Jewel!

Any one of them will cause the purchases to say a good word in our favor. Our stove business is enormous, and the fact of its being large is not merely chance. High qualities and low prices, besides always doing as we agree to do to the letter are responsible largely.

Minor details, as well as the most important, are carefully looked after in the construction of Jewel Stoves and Ranges. It is an aggregation of perfect features, small and large, that makes the perfect stove. This fairly accounts for the high merit of the Jewels. In point of efficiency, convenience, durability, design and finish, they outrank all other makes. Ask the dealer for them, and look for the above trade mark.

Jewel stoves are made by the largest makers of stoves in the United States—they are good stoves in every way. Come in and talk stove with us any time.

Holeproof Sox Need No Darning

A SAVING FOR MEN AND A BLESSING FOR WOMEN.

HOLEPROOF SOX are practically a new article on the market. What seemed to be impossible has been made possible. The problem that has vexed many sock makers has finally been solved after years of patient effort by the manufacturers of HOLEPROOF SOX. You cannot wear a hole in these Sox with ordinary use. The sanitary properties insure absolute antiseptic qualities. Constaut wear of ordinary sox causes excessive heat to the feet. HOLEPROOF SOX avoid this. Each washing makes them softer and the most sensitive feet have entire comfort in their use.

A Guarantee:

Four pairs of these Sox will need no darning for six months if worn alternately. We positively guarantee this point.

Holeproof Sox

Seem to cost 50 cents a pair, when, as a matter of fact, they really cost only 8 cents a pair. Don't you see? They outwear six ordinary pairs. Now, six ordinary pairs cost $1.50, while one pair of HOLEPROOF SOX costs 50 cents. 1-6 of $1.50—25 cents. 1-6 of 50 cents—8⅓ cents. Quite a saving, isn't it? And there's more saved than money—there's time, trouble, temper. HOLEPROOF SOX come in four colors: black, light tan, dark tan and natural grey.
